Claim objection

Claim 11 is objected to because of the following informalities: a bracket "[" is open before "to" (line 3) but is not closed after "10" (line 4). Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1 – 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 1 and 13 (lines 2, respectively), 3 (line 4) the phrase "such as" renders the claim indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Regarding claim 10, the phrase "in particular" (line 5) is vague and indefinite because it is unclear whether the limitations following the phrase are part of the claimed invention. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

Regarding claim 14, the phrase "lengths being possibly different" is vague because it is not readily clear as to what determines that possibility.

Art Unit: 3661

Regarding claim 16, the phrase "highway-like" (line 4) is vague and indefinite.

Are the "roads" highways or not?

Any dependent claims linking claims 1 and 13, directly or indirectly are necessarily rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2, 7, 10, 13, 14, 19, and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Golding (US 5,933,100).

Regarding claims 1, 2, 7, 10, 13, 14, 19, and 22, Golding teaches a system for recording vehicle (fig. 1 at least) with a position determining system (GPS 3), comprising transmitting a received coordinate signal (abstract; col. 4: 40-41 at least); a digital road map stored in a memory (2); selected roads being subdivided into different appropriate sections, each being subdivided into selected length and width rectangular segments associated with superimposed respective coordinates (20). Golding does provide for unambiguous identification (see fig. 2) and road data optimization (col. 3: 32 – 53 and col. 4: 49 – 61).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 3, 4, 8, 9, 15, 16, 20, 21 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Golding ('100) in view of Hayashi et al. (US 5,710,702).

As discussed above, Golding teaches all of the limitations except for associating a toll with the vehicle and determining the entrance and exit entered by the vehicle.

However, Hayashi et al. teaches, in an art related field of vehicle navigation system, associating a vehicle with a toll and determining the section of the road segments entered and exited by the vehicle (see figs. 1 – 4, 7 – 12 at least; col. 4: 60 – 62; col. 5: 17 – 33; col. 7: 28 – col. 8: 35 at least).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Golding's teaching by associating a vehicle with a toll and determining the section of the road segments entered and exited by the vehicle as evidenced by Hayashi et al. in order to enhance vehicle position or location accuracy.

Art Unit: 3661

Claims 11 and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Golding ('100) in view of Siegle et al. (US 5,508,917).

As discussed above, Golding teaches all of the limitations except for the road map being provided in the form of vector data.

However, Siegle et al teaches in the same field of endeavor of navigation system digital road map being provided in the form of vector data (col. 66 – col. 3: 2; col. 5: 37 – 50 at least).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have modified Golding's teaching by providing the road data in the form of vector data as evidenced by Siegle et al. in order to enhance guidance of the vehicle.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 5, 6, 12, 17, 18 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims. A statement supporting the allowable subject matter will be provided in subsequent Office action(s).
